

RECOMMENDATION SET 1

- 0. Civil Engineering
 - University of Galway
 - 521 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: Civil Engineering is concerned with the planning, design, construction and maintenance of the built environment. It encompasses minor and major structures, ranging from drainage systems, houses, commercial buildings, roads and bridges to multi-story buildings and water and wastewater treatment facilities. The work of civil engineers is most visible in the structures in which we live and work.
- 1. Engineering (General Entry)
 - TU Dublin - Bolton Street
 - 490 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: TU805 is the common first year entry point for the majority of four year Level 8 Engineering Degrees in TU Dublin. Students specialise in second and subsequent years and may choose: TU821 Electrical & Electronic/Computer & Communication Engineering TU822 Mechanical Engineering TU823 Manufacturing Engineering TU824 Structural Engineering TU825 Building Engineering TU826 Civil Engineering
- 2. Manufacturing & Design Engineering
 - TU Dublin - Bolton Street
 - 490 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: Engineering discipline are manufacturing technology and design for manufacture combined with business and enterprise management. In this course, you'll acquire the right mix of technical, managerial and communication skills that will equip you for a wide range of careers in a broad spectrum of industries.
- 3. Mechanical Engineering
 - TU Dublin - Bolton Street
 - 490 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: This course in Mechanical Engineering will give you the knowledge and competencies that you can apply in many fields of industry and research, including an excellent foundation in engineering science and maths, advanced design theory and practice, high-quality project work and practical workshop/laboratory hands-on skills.
- 4. Journalism
 - Dublin City University
 - 409 points
 - 3 Years
 - Overview: DCU's BA in Journalism is a top degree in Ireland designed to equip you with practical skills in reporting and writing for different media as well as providing you with essential knowledge in politics, law, ethics, society and culture. This degree will really appeal to you if you have an enquiring mind because the world needs journalists to analyse, examine and reveal how things work and what the future holds for people.
- 5. Arts (Journalism)
 - University of Galway
 - 381 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: If you are a budding reporter or are curious about the world around you and like to write, or have a passion for radio, television or social media, then this is an ideal programme for you. The BA Journalism is an exciting programme for University of Galway (reformed for 2019) which offers you an opportunity to gain highly coveted communication and media production skills while undertaking an Arts degree.
- 6. Information and Communication Studies
 - University College Dublin
 - 420 points
 - 3 Years
 - Overview: Information & Communication Studies (ICS) equips you with the knowledge, skills, and tools to help you to make sense of a world where every aspect of human experience is affected by digital technology, media, data, and information in all formats. ICS explores digital information, social media, and communication and analyses their effects on societies, culture, politics, privacy, health, education and the many different spheres of public, private and personal life. Ultimately, ICS is about people, and understanding how people and technology interact and influence each other.
- 7. Multimedia
 - Dublin City University
 - 388 points
 - 3 Years
 - Overview: Do you have a creative, enquiring mind and an interest in the design of engaging and interactive media experiences? Then DCU's BSc in Multimedia is the degree for you! Digital media technologies are central to our everyday lives and essential for any company to succeed in a globalised economy. Learn from the best DCU's BSc in Multimedia was the first degree of its type in Ireland and still leads the field. On this programme, you'll learn from teaching staff with real-world professional experience and deep knowledge based on research and industry practice.
- 8. Post Primary Teacher Education - Technology, Engineering and Graphics
 - Dublin City University
 - 402 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: This is a course for people who are interested in becoming post-primary teachers in the areas of Technology, Engineering and Graphics. On this degree, you'll learn about designing and innovating, and in coming up with creative solutions for the challenges facing society and industry. The four-year programme will be delivered through a partnership of DCU and Technological University of the Shannon (TUS). The first two years of study will take place at the TUS Athlone campus, and the final two years at the DCU Institute of Education in Dublin.
- 9. Physical Education with Biology
 - Dublin City University

- 521 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Do you really enjoy getting active while also having a passion for subjects such as biology and science? This course is a brilliant opportunity to blend your interests in a substantive way and go on to make a positive impact on society through education. Once you graduate, you can teach PE and Biology up to Leaving Cert level, and Science for Junior Cert level, or choose from a wide range of other exciting career paths. This course offers a unique blend of academic subjects, taught in a way that emphasises learning through practical experiences. During the course, you'll gain a comprehensive understanding of the content, theory, and skills of different physical activities (such as athletics, games, aquatics, dance, and outdoor activities), biology, science and education. You'll also improve your communication, leadership, and critical thinking skills. Future-proof your life. In both third and fourth year, you'll do a comprehensive professional school placement and you can also choose to study overseas through the Erasmus programme.

- 10. Physical Education with Mathematics

- Dublin City University
- 499 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Do you really enjoy both physical activity and mathematics? This course is a brilliant opportunity to combine your passions and go on to make a positive impact on society through education. Once you graduate from this course, you can teach these subjects up to Leaving Cert level or choose from a wide range of other exciting career paths. This course offers a unique blend of academic subjects, taught in a way that emphasises learning through practical experiences. During the course, you'll gain a comprehensive understanding of the content, theory, and skills of different physical activities (such as athletics, games, aquatics, dance, and outdoor activities), maths and education. You'll also improve your communication, leadership, and critical thinking skills.

- 11. Education Studies

- Marino Institute of Education
- 320 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: During the programme you will learn about adult, adolescent and early childhood education through attendance at classes, hands on learning, reading and skill development. The modules delivered on the programme encompass the themes of life-long learning, ethics and social justice, education and culture, and education policies and practices. The modules cover technology, the arts, curriculum and programme design, policy analysis and much more.

- 12. Architecture

- TU Dublin - Bolton Street
- 632 points
- 5 Years
- Overview: Architecture is the art and science of designing space. This course will suit you if you've got a creative aptitude for architectural design, the ability to implement your designs in practice, are interested in artistic and cultural aspects of society, and have an aptitude for technical and managerial challenges.

- 13. Landscape Architecture

- University College Dublin
- 485 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: The design studio is central to Landscape Architecture. You'll spend most of your time in the studio, pursuing individual and small group project work. You'll learn by doing design projects that allow you to develop creative skills and apply knowledge taught through lectures, seminars, drawing classes, field trips, reviews, readings, individual and group tutorials. In your third year you will also gain professional experience interning in a landscape related company / institution.

- 14. Architectural Technology

- TU Dublin - Bolton Street
- 424 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: An Architectural Technologist is a technical designer skilled in the application and integration of architectural and construction technologies in the building design process. Architectural Technology is an immersive, full-time course, which will prepare you for practice and requires attendance five days a week. A studio setting provides a structured environment in which you will work alongside other students and be exposed to a variety of teaching and learning experiences.

- 15. Building Engineering

- TU Dublin - Bolton Street
- 490 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Building engineers are at the heart of the building design process. They design, develop, install and implement the mechanical and electrical systems that ensure our buildings are safe, sustainable, comfortable, efficient and effective. Our graduates' impact and value lies at the leading edge - convergence of creative design vision and making it work through engineering and construction technology.

- 16. Sport Science and Health

- Dublin City University
- 518 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Are you passionate about sport? Can you imagine supporting an elite athlete to the heights of their career or helping to coach a team to be among the best in the world? That's exactly what many of our Sports Science and Health graduates do, while many others make a massive impact in the community, helping people of all ages to enjoy and benefit from sport and exercise. During this course, you'll learn how to enhance health and human performance, and how to advocate for and champion a healthy, educated and active society. You'll encounter a range of teaching methods, including practical sessions, and develop key skills you can use in any career, including creative and critical thinking.

- 17. Sport and Exercise Management

- University College Dublin
- 478 points
- 3 Years
- Overview: The multidisciplinary nature of the BSc in Sport & Exercise Management equips students with skills in areas such as management, marketing, event planning, human resources, economics and finance, sports development and coaching. These underpin the structure and governance of sport, health and exercise programmes today. You will study several management subjects and techniques over the course of three years, designed to provide you with the skills to work within a wide range of sports management areas. You will learn basic principles in first year which will be refined and developed in second and third year.

- 18. Sports & Leisure Management

- TU Dublin - Grangegorman
- 301 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: The course is a mix of business, sports and leisure theory and applied modules providing you when you graduate with a wide range of competencies and attributes that you will find valuable working within the Sports, Leisure and associated sectors. You will study topics such as Communication, Marketing, Intercultural Competence, Leadership in Health Activity and Nutrition, Entrepreneurship, Leisure Law, and Facilities Management. Graduates will build the attributes and competencies required to work in the field.

- 19. Social Studies (Social Work)

- Trinity College Dublin
- 456 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Social work is a profession concerned with supporting and helping people in a variety of situations and settings. People who use social work services include young and adult offenders, children, families, older people, people with mental and physical illness and disability, homeless people, unemployed people, ethnic groups, Travellers and people with drug and alcohol problems. Ultimately, social work aims to support people to live more successfully, within their communities by helping them to find solutions to their problems.

RECOMMENDATION SET 2

- 0. Business Studies and German

- Trinity College Dublin
- 521 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: This programme aims to provide you with the knowledge and skills necessary to communicate internationally and to understand the social, political and cultural contexts of markets, organisations and management across countries. In addition to studying modules in business, economic and social studies, you will study the society, institutions, culture and civilisation associated with your chosen language. Much of the teaching is provided through the target language. The third year is spent at a university or business school in Germany.

- 1. Civil Engineering

- University of Galway
- 521 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Civil Engineering is concerned with the planning, design, construction and maintenance of the built environment. It encompasses minor and major structures, ranging from drainage systems, houses, commercial buildings, roads and bridges to multi-story buildings and water and wastewater treatment facilities. The work of civil engineers is most visible in the structures in which we live and work.

- 2. Medical Science

- TU Dublin - Grangegorman
- 521 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Medical Science is the science related to medical conditions, their causes, diagnosis and treatment. This course provides multi-disciplinary training and clinical laboratory placement in all Biomedical Science disciplines, so that you may work in any of the following areas in pathology: Clinical Chemistry, Clinical Immunology, Clinical Cytology, Cellular Pathology, Haematology, Medical Microbiology, Molecular Diagnostics, and Transfusion Science.

- 3. Physical Education with Biology

- Dublin City University
- 521 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Do you really enjoy getting active while also having a passion for subjects such as biology and science? This course is a brilliant opportunity to blend your interests in a substantive way and go on to make a positive impact on society through education. Once you graduate, you can teach PE and Biology up to Leaving Cert level, and Science for Junior Cert level, or choose from a wide range of other exciting career paths. This course offers a unique blend of academic subjects, taught in a way that emphasises learning through practical experiences. During the course, you'll gain a comprehensive understanding of the content, theory, and skills of different physical activities (such as athletics, games, aquatics, dance, and outdoor activities), biology, science and education. You'll also improve your communication, leadership, and critical thinking skills. Future-proof your life! In both third and fourth year, you'll do a comprehensive professional school placement and you can also choose to study overseas through the Erasmus programme.

- 4. Children's and General Nursing (Integrated)

- Trinity College Dublin
- 520 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Students of nursing learn about caring and the complexities of health and illness through interactive teaching and learning strategies in the classroom and the healthcare environment. Practice (clinical and community) experience provides the student with opportunities to integrate the art and science of nursing and promotes the development of caring relationships with patients and their families/significant others.

- 5. Commerce (International) With Spanish

- University of Galway
- 520 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Commerce with Spanish allows students to further their language skills and live abroad while gaining valuable experience of international business. It is the ideal qualification for students who want to build a career in another European Union country or in an international firm.

- 6. Energy Systems Engineering

- University of Galway

- 520 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: This course prepares you with the fundamentals of mathematics, physics, chemistry, and engineering, hands-on labs in our state-of-the-art facilities, energy-focused classes on topics like zero carbon energy systems, fuels and hydrogen, zero energy buildings, smart grids, and more.
- 7. Law
 - University of Galway
 - 520 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: Law regulates all aspects of society: from marriage and parenting to corporate governance or international relations between countries. To study law is to become aware of one's legal rights and responsibilities in a variety of contexts, as well as to acquire knowledge and the research, writing and advocacy skills that enable one to argue both sides of a complex situation and devise a pragmatic, client-focused solution.
- 8. Law and Human Rights
 - University of Galway
 - 520 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: The four-year Bachelor of Civil Law (Human Rights) is an innovative and unique programme - the first of its kind in Ireland. It offers students the opportunity to combine a full undergraduate law programme with the study of human rights.
- 9. Law, Criminology and Criminal Justice
 - University of Galway
 - 520 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: The four-year Bachelor of Civil Law (Criminology and Criminal Justice) is a unique degree offering in Ireland for students with an interest in both law and the fields of criminology and criminal justice. Students have the opportunity to combine the study of a full undergraduate law degree with an additional specialisation that focuses on the causes of crime and the operation of the criminal justice system. Students will have access to world-class academics that specialise in the fields of criminal law, criminal justice, criminology, psychology and human rights.
- 10. Film
 - Trinity College Dublin
 - 518 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: Why do films affect us the way they do? Why did the introduction of sound change film forever? What do we mean by 'independent cinema'? What is a digital story world? These and many more are the questions that Film Studies asks students to consider in small-group lectures and seminars. In addition, over the course of your degree you'll be encouraged to respond creatively to critical issues via projects, presentations, short films and video essays, as well as to develop your screenwriting skills to see if you have a fresh vision to share with the world around you.
- 11. Genetics and Cell Biology
 - Dublin City University
 - 518 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: By studying on this programme, you can come to understand the genetic basis for life and how this information can be used to investigate, diagnose and treat diseases. You'll also gain practical laboratory skills, as well as skills in communications, critical thinking and problem-solving. Furthermore, you'll gain skills in computational biology, which uses high-tech data analysis and modelling to help harness genetic and biological insights.
- 12. Sport Science and Health
 - Dublin City University
 - 518 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: Are you passionate about sport? Can you imagine supporting an elite athlete to the heights of their career or helping to coach a team to be among the best in the world? That's exactly what many of our Sports Science and Health graduates do, while many others make a massive impact in the community, helping people of all ages to enjoy and benefit from sport and exercise. During this course, you'll learn how to enhance health and human performance, and how to advocate for and champion a healthy, educated and active society. You'll encounter a range of teaching methods, including practical sessions, and develop key skills you can use in any career, including creative and critical thinking.
- 13. Commerce (International) With French
 - University of Galway
 - 517 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: This exciting four-year course in Commerce with a modern French will allow you to develop your language skills and live abroad while gaining valuable insights into international business and culture. It is the ideal international qualification for students who want to build an exciting career in another country or in an international firm, or who wish to significantly expand their career choices.
- 14. Commerce (International) With German
 - University of Galway
 - 517 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: The Bachelor of Commerce (International with German) degree is a four year internationally recognised undergraduate programme which develops students' Business and German Language skills. Graduates of this programme not only have a great business qualification but also an international language.
- 15. Law & Business
 - University of Galway
 - 517 points
 - 4 Years
 - Overview: The four-year Bachelor of Civil Law and Business allows students to combine the study of a full law degree with principal commercial disciplines such as Business & Commercial Law, Accountancy, Economics, Management and Digital Business & Analytics. Graduates will understand not only the legal process but also the fundamentals of business. This will prepare graduates to work as lawyers in a corporate environment.
- 16. Computer Science, Linguistics and a Language

- Trinity College Dublin
- 512 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: B.A. (Mod) in Computer Science, Linguistics and a Language. CSLL combines the study of Computer Science; a natural language, either Spanish, French or Irish; and Linguistics. The computer science component of CSLL seeks to impart a mastery of the techniques and technologies that lie behind what you see on the screen of one of today's computers, giving you a full understanding the computer applications of today, and enabling you to participate in the development of the applications of the future.

- 17. History of Art and Architecture

- Trinity College Dublin
- 511 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: History of Art and Architecture is about the study of images, objects and buildings. It is unique in developing high levels of visual literacy applicable to a range of career pathways. It explores why works of art look the way they do and seeks to discover what they say about the societies that created them. It develops skills in visual analysis, critical assessment, and communication.

- 18. Business Studies

- Dublin City University
- 510 points
- 3 - 4 Years
- Overview: The Business Studies degree course is designed to give you an introduction to the foundations of business and guide you to a specialisation in economics, management, finance, marketing, HR or business analytics. The four-year course includes an optional 11-month paid work placement that gives you the opportunity to experience working in a real business environment. Alternatively, you can opt to spend a year at one of our partner universities in Europe.

- 19. Electrical and Electronic Engineering

- University of Galway
- 510 points
- 4 Years
- Overview: Electrical and Electronic Engineering involves developing technologies required for our future needs in such areas as communication, electrical energy, transport, healthcare and entertainment. Electrical and Electronic Engineers are involved in advances in medical technology, mobile phones, wireless communications, electrical power systems, renewable energy, electric vehicles, e-commerce and the internet-of-things.